Camphor Welcomes New Pastor

By Carol A. Black

On Sunday, July 3, 2005, Rev. Laurie Ann Rookard was officially introduced and welcomed to the Camphor congregation during the morning worship service by Mrs. Floretta McMillon, chairperson of the Staff Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. Rev. Rookard's appointment to Camphor by Bishop Marcus Matthews was effective July 1, 2005 when she became the 23rd pastor to serve our historic church.

Rev. Rookard brings outstanding pastoral leadership to Camphor. She is a 1984 graduate of Albright College and received the Master of Divinity degree from Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC in 1987. Rev. Rookard began her ministry in the South Caribbean District of the United Methodist Church where she served four churches in Barbados from 1987 to 1990. She completed a two-year Pastoral Psychotherapy Residency at Pastoral Institute/Bradley Center, Columbus, GA in

Message from The Pastor

Dear Members and Friends of Camphor,

It is with both excitement and anticipation that I write this first pastoral letter to you. There is no doubt in my mind that God has brought us together at this time to do some important work for the Divine plan.

There are at least three things that I hope will happen during our first year together. One, I pray for healing in the Body of Christ. This will involve prayer, forgiveness, and the renewal of trust between people, as well as 1993 and is a certified pastoral psychotherapist. In 1993, Rev. Rookard was appointed to Parkside UMC where she developed Christian clowning with youth, music and movement in worship and partnered with the Salvation Army's "Warming Center" for homeless. During this time, Rev. Rookard also worked at Northwestern Human Services, West Chester, PA, where she provided outpatient mental health-clinical therapy to individuals and couples from various socio-economic and racial/ethnic backgrounds.

Rev. Rookard and sons

In 1998, Rev. Rookard was appointed to Frankford Memorial UMC/Frankford Group Ministry where she assisted the congregation in "Project 6:15" church redevelopment under the auspices of EPC's Office of Urban Ministry, and was an integral part of Frankford Social Contract, a multi-faceted neighborhood-schools-civic-city initiative to combat drugs, truancy and violence in the community.

Rev. Rookard is married to Raymel Rookard and they are the proud parents of two sons, Jesse and Raymel Jr., who enjoy sharing the limelight with mother in photo.

discovery of new ways to work through difficulties.

Two, I believe that there will be a deepening of discipleship. This will come about as we learn how to act out the gospel message in different facets of our lives. Three, I am hoping for the discernment of God's vision for our church in the community.

"There is no doubt in my mind that God has brought us together at this time to do some important work for the Divine plan."

Please know that as your minister, I will be praying for you every day. I hope that you will include me in your prayers as well. As we work together, in a "declaration of inter-dependence," I know that God will use us to write on human hearts and bring us closer to the Kingdom of God.

Shalom,

Reverend Laurie Ann Rookard

Thank you, Rev. Palmer!

Camphor is extremely grateful to Rev. Herbert Palmer who returned as Interim Pastor for the period, April 17 to June 30, 2005. Rev. Palmer brought a wealth of experience to assist Camphor during the transition of pastoral leadership from Dr. Roger Reddick to Rev. Lorie Ann Rookard. Rev. Palmer's ministry background expanded 42 years and included ministerial appointments at Emmanuel, Spring Garden, Sanctuary, Union Memorial, Haven Memorial, Tindley

Rededication of "New" Sunday School Room on September 11, 2005

By Sharon Brown

Whether you know it as the "Blue Room," the William and Mary Hudson room or the Sunday School room—big things are happening there. The room traditionally used for Sunday School at Camphor is receiving an "extreme makeover."

Years of use by Sunday school classes, summer camp, group meetings and other activities have left the room in need of updating and repairs. Thanks to Camphor's Trustees, a much needed renovation has begun with a preliminary unveiling and rededication ceremony scheduled for Sunday, September 11.

Sunday School classes will also resume on that day with a traditional pancake breakfast and Christian clown skits.

"Our children deserve a safe and welcoming room in which to worship and learn," said Ruth Harmon, Education Committee Chair. Several committee members participated in a clean up that helped pave the way for the renovation. Immediate changes will include a fresh coat of paint, lighting and structural repairs and the removal of unused furniture and equipment.

Additional plans include the purchase of new instructional materials, bibles, furniture and audiovisual equipment. The Sunday School staff is hopeful that with these changes and more aggressive recruiting efforts, children will once again fill that room and others at Camphor.

The Sunday School staff is looking forward to welcoming old and new students on September 11th and invites everyone to join them at 9:30 AM in the dining hall.

A Special Thanks!

Dear Mr. And Mrs. Jasper:
Thanks to you and the many friends of Aunt Alice Habershaw at Camphor Memorial. She receives beautiful cards almost every week. We read them to her and she always has something positive to say about each of you.
She is doing as well as expected— her short-term memory has gone— but she seems happy. She loves to have the Daily Word read to her.
Please convey the congregation our sincere appreciation for all the cards and prayers!! Love,
Brenda (her niece)

Our ANNUAL FLEA MARKET was held on Saturday, June 4. A special thanks to all for your support. Looking forward to our next one in June 2006.

Bishop challenges Christians

MUTARE, Zimbabwe — Bishop Abel T. Muzorewa wants Christians to “climb out of their comfort zones” and bring people to Christ. “Out of the world’s population of 6 billion, only 2 billion are Christians,” he said at a July 23 celebration of his 60-year ministry. “Of those, only half have a real personal knowledge of Christ.” It is time to stop saying numbers don’t count in the church, he said. He has launched an evangelism foundation bearing his name.

Lutherans approve pact with United Methodists

ORLANDO, Fla. — Representatives of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America have approved an “interim Eucharistic sharing” agreement with the United Methodist Church. The 877-60 vote occurred Aug. 11 during the ELCA’s 2005 Churchwide Assembly. The terms of the agreement foster “mutual prayer and mutual support, study together of the Holy Scriptures as well as the histories and theological traditions of both churches, and joint programs of theological discussion, evangelical outreach and social ministry

Almost four years ago, Mary Bradley Weeks started donating school supplies to needy families. Through the nonprofit Mary Bradley Weeks Education Project Inc., she gives at least a thousand students a good start for the new school year.

Outreach programs give church new life

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — In the 1970s, Theresa Hoover United Methodist Church was on its way to fading out. Then the Rev. William “Paw Paw” Robinson Jr. stepped in. “I just saw an opportunity for this building to fill a void,” he said. He has been a key in creating a series of programs through a United Methodist ministry called Black Community Developers to serve the community of Little Rock. The programs include a day care, after-school and summer youth programs, gang intervention, a substance abuse program, housing for formerly incarcerated men, jobs training, affordable housing and a partnership with the Minority AIDS Network.

Mexico needs post-hurricane aid

NEW YORK — Hurricane Emily wreaked havoc on villages in northern Mexico in July. People in small towns and with few resources lost their homes, livelihoods and property in the storm. Health kits from the United Methodist Committee on Relief are in high demand. United Methodists can help by supporting “UMCOR Advance #901440, Material Resources” through the local church. The election is Oct. 11.
